

Sept. 16, 1942.

Mr. John F. Collins,
213 Montague St.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Friend:

We have just closed the season and my first job is writing this letter of thanks to you. I cannot tell you in so many words how very much I appreciate your cooperation in renting us Ebbets Field.

I really feel the crowd was satisfactory, when you consider we only had one week to advertize and the opposition to which we were playing. I hope you were not too disappointed in the crowd. I am sure with the proper build up and handling, we could do even better, if there is another year for us and if you will again let us play in Ebbets Field.

I know you are feeling a little bum right now about The Dodgers slump, but I honestly feel they will snap out of it and win the penant again.

I hope this winter, if you have a little off time we can get together. If that is ever possible, give me a ring, my private number is MARKET 3-0555.

Again please accept my very kind thanks.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ